

Raghavendra D M

7619305964 | raghavendradm0@gmail.com | Davanagere, Karnataka
LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/raghu-raghavendra-710b0333a>

CAREER OBJECTIVE

Motivated B.E. student in Computer Science and Engineering with foundational knowledge in C, Java, and web technologies. Seeking an entry level opportunity in software or data-related roles to apply technical skills and contribute to impactful projects while continuously enhancing my knowledge.

EDUCATION

|                                                                                                       |                      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| Bachelor of Engineering in Computer Science Engineering, Visveswaraya Technological University | Sept 2023 – Jul 2027 |
| CGPA: 6.1/ 10   Srinivas Institute of Technology Valachil, Mangalore                                  |                      |
| 12th, Karnataka School Examination and Assessment Board, Bangaluru                             | 2023                 |
| Percentage: 71.4%   Dr.Thimmareddy college, Davanagere                                                |                      |
| 10th, Karnataka Secondary Education Examination Board                                          | 2021                 |
| Percentage: 89.9%   Janatha High school, Basavapatanna                                                |                      |

SKILLS

Programming Languages: C, Python, Java

Web Technologies: HTML, CSS

Databases: MySQL, MongoDB

Tools and Platforms: Git, VS Code

Soft Skills: Communication, Teamwork, Problem Solving, Time Management

ACADEMIC PROJECTS

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|
| Verifact                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Aug 2025 – Dec 2025 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Developed a mental health and support chatbot system using Python and machine learning techniques, resulting in the identification and percentage estimation of AI-generated manipulation in given inputs.</li><li>Collaborated with a team of 4 members to design and implement the solution within the academic timeline.</li></ul> |                     |

CERTIFICATIONS

- Internet of Things 101, Infosys, 2024
- C-programming,

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Completed academic projects on mental health and journal chatbot
- Participated in Codehathon 2025

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Participating in college events
- Assisting team members to complete the academic Major Project

Languages: English (Conversational), Kannada (Native), Hindi (Conversational)

Interests: Cricket, Competitive Programming, Video editing